RULES AND REGULATIONS.

REFERENCE DEPARTMENT.

1.—The Reference Library is open daily from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., and from 3 p.m. to 9 p.m., excepting Sundays, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, and upon any other occasion when the Committee may so direct. On Tuesdays the Reference Library is closed at 1 p.m.

2.—Persons under 16 years of age are not admitted into the Reference Library except by special permission of the Librarian.

3.—Any person giving a false name and address will be liable to legal proceedings.

4.—No person may take any book from the Library Shelves, or enter any places in the Library other than those devoted to readers generally, except by special permission from the Librarian.

5.—It is expressly forbidden to remove from the Reference Library any book, map, manuscript or other article belonging thereto, or to write or make any marks upon the same.

6.—The use of ink for copying extracts is not permitted, and tracing is strictly forbidden, as it causes injury to the illustrations. Readers are particularly requested not to soil or injure the works used; in copying extracts care must be observed so that no injury may be done to the books. The Librarian may stop any act which he thinks calculated to cause injury to any book, plate, or work.

The poet Southey's copy, with the following note in his handwriting:—"The Author's autograph is written on the back of the title page. Where the copyright was of great importance (as the numerous privileges affixed to it show) it was not uncommon for the author thus to sign every copy. Whether the custom was of use then I know not,—they who might pirate the work would not scruple at forging the name of the author whom they robbed. But it gives a value to the book now. I am glad to possess a relic of Garibay, whom I love, for his laborious life and for the excellent simplicity with which he requests Philip II. to employ a few of his very few leisure moments in reading these four volumes!—I owe him my thanks too, for I have borrowed his motto, which was as applicable to me as it was to him.—Robert Southey."

Scott.—Discourse concerning the Invocation of Saints, by Dr. Freeman, dean of Peterborough.—Discourse concerning the Worship of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints, by Dr. Clagett.—The Texts examined, which Papists cite out of the Bible, for the proof of their Doctrine concerning the Worship of Angels and Saints departed, by Dr. Freeman, dean of Peterborough.—The Fallibility of the Roman Church demonstrated, from the manifest Errors of the Second Nicene and Trent Councils; which assert that the veneration and honorary Worship of Images, is a Tradition primitive and apostolical, by D. Whitby.—Discourse concerning the Second Council of Nice, which first introduced and established Image Worship in the Christian Church, A.D. 787, by Dr. Comber, dean of Durham.

vol. 8.—Discourse concerning the Second Council of Nice, by Dr. Comber (continued.)—The Texts examined, which Papists cite out of the Bible, for the proof of their Doctrine concerning the Worship of Images and Relics, by Dr. Gee, dean of Lincoln.—Discourse concerning the Devotions of the Church of Rome, especially compared with those of the Church of England, in which it is shewn, that whatsoever the Romanists pretend, there is not so true devotion among them, nor such rational provision for it, nor encouragement to it, as in the Church established by law amongst us, by Dr. Stanley, dean of St. Asaph.—No Catholic Tradition for Seven Sacraments, by Dr. Stillingfleet, bishop of Worcester.—The Texts examined, which Papists cite out of the Bible, for the proof of their Doctrine concerning the Seven Sacraments, and the efficacy of them, by E. Gee, dean of Lincoln.—Historical Discourse, concerning the necessity of the Minister's Intention in administering the Sacraments, by P. Allix.—Discourse concerning the pretended Sacrament of Extreme Unction; with an account of the occasions and beginnings of it in the Western Church, by Dr. Clagett.—Discourse of the Communion in one kind, in answer to a treatise of the Bishop of Meaux, of Communion under both species, by W. Payne.

vol. 9.—Discourse of the Communion in one kind, by W. Payne (continued.)—Paraphrase, with notes, and a preface, upon the 6th Chapter of St. John, shewing that there is neither good reason, nor sufficient authority, to suppose that the Eucharist is discoursed of in that chapter; much less to infer the Doctrine of Transubstantiation, by Dr. Clagett. Full view of the Doctrines and Practices of the Ancient Church, relating to the Eucharist, wholly different from those of the Roman Church and inconsistent with the belief of Transubstantiation, by — Patrick.—Doctrine of the Trinity and Transubstantiation compared, as to Scripture, Reason, and Tradition, by Dr. Stillingfleet, bishop of Worcester.—The Texts examined, which Papists cite out of the Bible, for the proof of their Doctrine concerning Transubstantiation, by Dr. Williams, bishop of Chichester.

and the Adoration of the Host, by Dr. Wake, archbishop of Canterbury.—Discourse concerning the Adoration of the Host, as it is taught and practised in the Church of Rome, by W. Payne.—Discourse concerning Auricular Confession, as it is described by the Council of Trent, and practised in the Church of Rome, by J. Goodman.—The Texts examined, which Papists cite out of the Bible, for the proof of their Doctrine concerning Auricular Confession, by T. Linford.—Discourse concerning Penance; shewing how the doctrine of it in the Church of Rome makes void true Repentance, by P. Allix.—The Texts examined, which Papists cite out of the Bible, for the proof of their Doctrine concerning Satisfactions, by J. Gascarth.—Treatise against the Doctrine of Indulgences, by Dr. Stillingfleet, bishop of Worcester.—Discourse concerning the Merit of Good Works, by P. Allix.—The Texts examined, which Papists cite out of the Bible, for the proof of their Doctrine of Merits, by T. Linford.

vol. 11.—Discourse of Purgatory, by Dr. Wake, archbishop of Canterbury.—The Texts examined, which Papists cite out of the Bible, for the proof of their Doctrine concerning Purgatory, by J. Bramston.—Discourse of Prayers for the Dead, by Dr. Wake, archbishop of Canterbury,—Preservative against Popery; being plain directions to unlearned Protestants, how to dispute with Romish Priests, by Dr. Sherlock, dean of St. Paul's.—Summary of the principal Controversies between the Church of England and the Church of Rome, by Dr. Sherlock, dean of St. Paul's.—The Council of Trent examined and disproved by Catholic Tradition, in the main points in controversy between us and the Church of Rome; with a particular account of the times and occasions of introducing them: with preface concerning the true sense of the Council of Trent, and the notion of Transubstantiation, by Dr. Stillingfleet, bishop of Worcester.

vol. 12.—Sermon preached before the King at Whitehall, the 24th of November, 1678, by Dr. Lloyd, bishop of Worcester.—Expositions of the Doctriue of the Church of England, against the exceptions of Mons. de Meaux, etc., by Dr. Wake, archbishop of Canterbury.

vol. 13.—An Answer to the Reply, etc., being a further Defence of the Exposition of the Church of England, by Dr. Wake, archbishop of Canterbury.—Difference between the Church of England and the Church of Rome, in opposition to a late book, entitled, an Agreement between the Church of England and the Church of Rome, by Dr. Williams, bishop of Chichester.—Doctrines and practices of the Church of Rome truly represented; in answer to a book, entitled, a Papist misrepresented and represented, etc., by Dr. Stillingfleet, bishop of Worcester.—View of the whole controversy between the Representer and the Answerer; with an Answer to the Representer's Reply, in which are laid open some of the methods by which Protestants are misrepresented by Papists, by W. Clagett.

vol. 14.—An Answer to the Representer's Reflections upon the State and View of the Controversy; with a Reply to the Vindicator's Full Answer; shewing that the Vindicator has utterly ruined the new Design of Expounding and Representing Popery, by W. Clagett.—Vindication of some Protestant Principles of Church Unity and Catholic Communion from the Charge of Agreement with the Church of Rome; in answer to a late pamphlet, intituled, "An Agreement between the Church of England and the Church of Rome, evinced from the concertation of some of her sons with their brethren the Dissenters," by Dr. Sherlock.—The Difference of the case between the Separation of Protestants from the Church of Rome, and the Separation of Dissenters from the Church of England, by W. Clagett.—The Creed of Pope Pius V., or a prospect of Popery taken from that authentic record, by M. Altham.—Brief examination of the present Roman Catholic Faith contained in Pope Pius's New Creed, by the Scriptures, Ancient Fathers, and their own Modern Writers; in answer to a Letter desiring satisfaction concerning the Visibility of the Protestant Church and Religion in all ages, especially before Luther's time, by S. Gardiner.

vol. 15.—Historical examination of the Authority of General Councils; shewing the false dealing that hath been used in the publishing of them; and the difference amongst the Papists themselves about their number, by R. Jenkin.—Roman Forgeries in the Councils during the first four Centuries: together with an appendix concerning the forgeries and errors in the Annals of Baronius, by T. Comber, dean of Durham.—Account of the Life and death of the Blessed Virgin, according to Romish Writers: with the grounds of the worship paid to her; and a preface in answer to the Apology for the Contemplations, etc., by Dr. Fleetwood, bishop of Ely.—The Virgin Mary misrepresented by the Roman Church, in the Traditions of that Church concerning her life and glory; and in the Devotions paid to her as the Mother of God, by Dr. Patrick, bishop of Ely.

vol. 16.—The Virgin Mary misrepresented by the Roman Church, etc., by Dr. Patrick, bishop of Ely (continued.)—The Missionaries' Arts Discovered; or an account of their ways of insinuation, their artifices and several methods of which they serve themselves in making Converts; with a Letter to Mr. Pulton challenging him to make good his charge of Disloyalty against Protestants; and an historical preface containing an account of their introducing the Heathen Gods in their Processions, and other particulars relating to the several chapters of this treatise, by G. Hickes.—Of the Incurable Scepticism of the Church of Rome, translated from M. de Placette, and published by Dr. Tenison, archbishop of Canterbury.—A Persuasive to an ingenuous Trial of Opinions in Religion, by W. Clagett.

vol. 17.—Brief historical account of the behaviour of the Jesuits and their faction, for the first twenty-five years of Queen Elizabeth's reign: with an Epistle of W. Watson, a secular priest, shewing how they were thought of by the other Romanists of that time. The Execution of Justice in England, not for Religion, but for Treason, by the direction of Secretary Burleigh.—Dialogue betwixt two Protestants (in answer to a Popish Catechism, called, 'A short Catechism against Sectaries'), plainly shewing that the members of the Church of England are no Sectaries, but true Catholics; and that our Church is a sound part of Christ's Holy Catholic Church, in whose Communion, therefore, the people of this nation are most strictly bound in conscience to remain, by J. Rawlet.—The Protestant's Companion; or an impartial survey and comparison of the Protestant Religion, as by Law established, with the main Doctrines of Popery. Wherein is shewn that Popery is contrary to Scripture, Primitive Fathers and Councils; and that proved from Holy Writ, the Writings of the Ancient Fathers for several hundred years, and the Confession of the most learned Papists themselves; whereby the Papists' vain pretence to Antiquity, and their reproaching the Protestant Doctrines with Novelty, is wholly overthrown.—The Old Religion: a treatise wherein is laid down the true state of the Difference betwixt the Reformed and Roman Church, and the blame of this Schism is cast upon the true authors, by Bishop Hall.

vol. 18.—List of Writers quoted, or referred to in the work.—List of the Authors of the various treatises in the "Preservative."—Names of Councils, referred to, and quoted in the work.—Councils and Dates.—General Contents.—General Index.
